6. Notice of regular and/or special meetings shall follow the same procedure as set forth in ARTICLE IX, Section 4, part 2, with the exception that only members of the respective region must be notified.

Section 8: State Leadership Committee Vote by Mail or Internet

1. Upon the request of a 2/3rds supermajority of the CYD Executive Board, matters normally considered at in-person meetings of the State Leadership Committee may be considered by the members of the State Leadership Committee through mail, or by means of electronic voting, provided that the following provisions apply:
 - a. Members shall have at least seven (7) days to return their ballot, and within seven (7) days after the close of balloting, the list of members voting and their vote cast shall be distributed to the State Leadership Committee.
 - b. Quorum necessary for measures submitted through this method shall be the return of ballots from a majority of the membership of the State Leadership Committee.
 - c. Voting must be made available through regular mail or fax to any member upon the request to the State Secretary.
 - d. Voting must be done in a manner to ensure that all votes cast bear the signature, or an electronic signature of the member who cast the vote.
 - e. Should twenty-five percent (25%) of the members of the State Leadership Committee vote to postpone the matter under consideration until the next in-person meeting of the State Leadership Committee, the matter shall be considered tabled until that time. The option to postpone shall be listed on any matter referred in this manner as an option to vote.
 - f. The election of CYD Officers shall not occur through Vote by Mail or Internet.

ARTICLE X: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1: Expenditures

1. Neither CYD nor any of its officers or members may expend any amount in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) in aggregate to a single source per calendar year without the prior approval of the State President and State Vice President of Finance.

2. Neither CYD nor any of its officers or members may expend any amount in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) in aggregate to a single source per calendar year without the prior majority approval of the State Leadership Committee.
3. Neither CYD nor any of its officers or members may expend any amount that may be in violation of applicable federal or state law.

Section 2: Endorsements

The State Leadership Committee and all CYD Officers shall use their power and influence to achieve a high level of effective participation by the chartered chapters and their members in Democratic nominees' campaigns.

1. The State Executive Committee may, upon due notice of thirty (30) days, by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of those present and voting, endorse in the primary and/or general elections of the following races:
 - a. California Constitutional Officers,
 - b. United States Senate,
 - c. United States President and,
 - d. California ballot propositions,
 - e. United States House of Representatives,
 - f. California Board of Equalization
2. The State Executive Committee may, upon due notice of thirty (30) days, by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of those present and voting, endorse only in the General Election of the following races:
 - a. California State Assembly,
 - b. California State Senate and,
 - c. California Board of Equalization
3. A chartered chapter may endorse or support the candidacy of a registered Democrat provided that the chartered chapter uses only its official name in conjunction with the endorsement and not the name of the California Young Democrats. Member chapters may make endorsements in races that differ from the endorsement of the California Young Democrats.

4. The State Executive Committee may only consider for endorsement a candidate who is a registered Democrat. Chartered chapters may not endorse candidates who are not registered Democrats, and doing so is a violation of these bylaws that shall result in charter revocation.

5. Prior to a primary election, the State Executive Committee may consider for endorsement a candidate who is a registered Democrat and who commits to file for candidacy as “Party Preference: Democratic” (hereinafter “self-identified Democrats”). The State Executive Committee may not consider for endorsement a candidate who has not committed to file as such. A candidate who fails to file as such, after receiving the endorsement of the California Young Democrats, shall have this endorsement rescinded.

6. The State Executive Committee will not consider any endorsements other than those outlined in subsection 1 of this section prior to the State Executive Committee meeting in July prior to the election. If there is no State Executive Committee meeting convened in July, such consideration will be made at the next State Executive Committee meeting prior to the general election. No legislative endorsement meeting may take place prior to July 1 before the general election.

7. Endorsements in non-statewide legislative and Board of Equalization races, defined in subsection 1(e) through 1(h) of this section, may be considered by the following process for endorsement in a General Election:

- a. The State Executive Committee will consider approval of a consent calendar consisting of endorsement recommendations submitted by each Regional Executive Committee.
- b. Each Regional Executive Committee shall be convened on the same day and at the same location as the State Executive Committee at which General Election endorsements are considered. Regional Meetings shall be scheduled to conclude at least one (1) hour prior to the State Executive Committee meeting.
- c. Each Regional Executive Committee may consider making recommendations for endorsements in local races, as defined by this section, whose district is included in its region.
- d. Each Regional Executive Committee may make such recommendations only after reaching a seventy-five percent (75%) majority of those present and voting. Only Regional Executive Committee members who reside in or represent a chapter located in the district with a race being considered may vote on an endorsement in that race. Such a vote requires that the committee have quorum of the members eligible to vote on the individual race at the time of the vote.

- e. The State Executive Committee may approve by acclamation such a consent calendar by unanimous voice vote. Any voting member of the State Executive Committee who is present at the meeting of the committee may pull from consideration a candidate recommended for endorsement by verbally objecting to the consent calendar's approval and by specifically identifying a race and candidate. Such action would necessitate that candidate's endorsement to be separately discussed and voted on pursuant to the CYD bylaws and Robert's Rules of Order.

H. Candidates who are both registered Democrats and self-identified Democrats running against a candidate in a general election who is not a registered Democrat will automatically receive the endorsement of the California Young Democrats 14 days after the certification of a primary election's results by the agency in charge of election certification unless one (1) or more members of the State Executive Committee object in a written communication submitted to the State President, State Secretary and State Political Director within 13 days after certification of a primary election's results. Candidates hereby removed from the list of automatic endorsements could be voted upon for consideration and receive the endorsement of the California Young Democrats should he or she receive a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of those present and voting at the next State Executive Committee meeting following certification of primary results

I. The State Executive Committee may consider endorsements of candidates outside of the time parameters as outlined in subsection 5 of this section by convening a special meeting of the committee upon due notice of twenty-one (21) days.

Section 3: Reserved Powers

Subject to the conditions and limitations herein provided, both the Regions and the Young Democratic Chapters thereof shall be considered autonomous organizations.

Section 4: National Committee

Should the State President, National Committeewoman, or National Committeeman be voting members of the National Committee by virtue of any other national position, the State Executive Committee may elect an alternate to represent the State until such time as the affected Officer no longer holds said position.

Section 5: Organizational Records

The State President, Secretary and Parliamentarian shall, whenever possible, forward relevant organizational records to an established California Young Democrats archive within the University of California Northern Regional Library facility and Southern Regional Library facility.

Information including, but not limited to photos, memorabilia, meeting minutes, leadership rosters, conference notes, convention agendas, credentials reports and other statements shall be forwarded periodically and at the close of each State Convention. Such records serve to preserve the history of the organization for future generations.

Section 6: Executive Director

The State President, with the consent of the State Executive Board, may hire an Executive Director. The Executive Director shall be responsible to the general direction and policies of the California Young Democrats and work under the general direction of the State President. The State Executive Board may adopt a CYD staff policy manual. All other employees of the California Young Democrats shall report to the Executive Director or Designee. All matters concerning discipline, employment terms or other items relating to personnel deemed sensitive by the State President or Executive Director shall be handled by a personnel task-force consisting of the elected State Officers as defined in Article V, Section 1. These meetings shall be closed and confidential. Any decisions requiring a change in the adopted budget of the California Young Democrats shall require ratification by the State Leadership Committee.

ARTICLE XI: AMENDMENT OF THE BYLAWS

Section 1 : Amendment

These Bylaws may be amended by majority vote of all the delegates accredited and in attendance at any State Convention, or by two-thirds (2/3) vote at any State Leadership Committee. An amendment shall become effective on the first Monday after adjournment of the meeting at which the amendment was adopted unless a specific exception is stated in the motion to amend.

Section 2: Notice

Notice to amend the Bylaws shall be given twenty-one (21) days prior to any Executive Board meeting at which the amendment may be considered.

ARTICLE XII: SUSPENSION OF THE BYLAWS

Any section of these Bylaws may be suspended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present and voting at any meeting of the Executive Committee or State Convention where at least one-third (1/3) of the total State Leadership Committee membership is present and whom represent at least five (5) different regions. A motion to suspend must identify the Article and Section being suspended and may not suspend more than one Article. This Article may not be suspended.
